

Dr. Pella Calogiannakis is Professor of Comparative Education at the Pedagogical Department of Teacher Education at University of Crete, Greece. She studied at Sorbonne, Paris-V, Rene Descartes in Paris, France (D.E.A & PhD). Her research interests are related with Comparative Education and Political Socialization, especially on 'human-citizen and world crisis, having experience in research and coordination of European programs on vulnerable people, on Teachers Training and Re-training in the area of critical pedagogy and socialization.

She is also a DVP of Zhengzhou University, P.R., in China. She is the author of ten books and editor (or co-editor) of 12 handbooks; she has published about 90 articles different languages (greek, english, french, chinese, japanese, africans, turkish, arab and russian languages) and over 2000 citations in google scholar. She has participated in many international congresses on Comparative Education and Citizenship Education in Greece & Europe, United States, Asia and Africa. She has lectured at the University of at North-West University's Potchefstroom in South Africa and in Saint John's University in New York. She is the Coordinator in Crete for the European Program on the 'Integration of Roma children in schools' and Director of the post-graduate Program of the University of Crete-School of Education, on "Sciences of Education, Critical Pedagogy and Teachers Education".

E-mail: pkalogiannaki@gmail.com/ pkalogian@edc.uoc.gr

Address: University of Crete, Department of Primary Teachers Education, Rethymno, 74100, Crete, Greece